(1.) Insert the aggregate in words and figures.
(2.) If payments are made semi-annually, insert "First and Second" or "Third and Fourth;" if annually, erase the words "quarters of the."
(3.) Insert any additional remarks which may be necessary.
NOTE.—Particular attention is called to Sections 34 to 36, Instructions to Agents, October 1, 1880, as their requirements must be strictly complied with before credit can be obtained for any payments made on this roll.
In case of death, the date should always be given in the column for remarks. Persons receiving for others, as guardians, administrators, &c., must sign their own name, as well as that of the party to whom the money is paid.
Witnesses to payments or other transactions must affix their signatures opposite every mark witnessed; and certificates of interpreters and others must be worded so as to show distinctly what they are certifying to—
